London Parks and Gardens Trust - Holwood Park

Caesar's Camp, Holwood Park, Keston, BR2 6HB

London Borough of Bromley

Park/Garden - Grade II, Scheduled Ancient Monument

Received 22/10/2024

Deadline 19/11/2024

The site is 1km south-east of the village of Keston, 6km south of Bromley, and 2km north-west of the village of Downe.

The site is part of Holwood Park, a registered Grade II listed Park and Garden, and is also part of a Scheduled Monument, shared with Holwood Estate, listed by Historic England as Holwood Camp, but traditionally known as Caesar's Camp. It is a large Iron Age multivallate hillfort and despite having been part-levelled by landscaping in the past, the large multivallate hillfort known as Caesar's Camp survives well. The west and part of the north of this feature are largely intact and span across to the neighbouring land, much of it in this landownership was levelled by Pitt/Repton in the 18th Century. The aim is to improve and maintain a diverse, mixed broadleaved woodland, with improved structure and biodiversity, including scrub and open space.
