

Capability Brown Festival 2016: hub, urban and ambassador sites

The Festival has developed a network of Capability Brown sites in England, which will play a key part of the 2016 celebrations. These sites have been broken down into hub, urban and ambassador sites.

Our hub sites will act as points of Festival information with materials, display panels and informed staff and volunteers. They will link with, and support, smaller Capability Brown sites in their area.

Our hub sites are:

- Bowood House, Wiltshire
- Blenheim Palace, Oxfordshire
- Chatsworth, Derbyshire
- Compton Verney, Warwickshire
- Croome, Worcestershire*
- Milton Abbey, Dorset **
- Petworth Park, West Sussex*
- Scampston Estate, North Yorkshire
- Ugbrooke House, Devon
- Wimpole, Cambridgeshire*
- Wrest Park, Bedfordshire

Urban sites are close to large cities or towns, and will be working to attract new visitors from these areas.

Our urban sites are:

- Ashburnham Place, East Sussex
- Berrington Hall, Herefordshire*
- Burton Constable, East Riding of Yorkshire
- Coombe Country Park, Warwickshire
- Hatfield Forest, Essex*
- Knowsley Hall, Merseyside
- Stowe, Buckinghamshire*
- The Trentham Estate, Staffordshire
- Wallington, Northumberland*
- Wentworth Castle, South Yorkshire
- Weston Park, Shropshire

Ambassador sites will be a strong voice for the Festival in their region, and will promote the Capability Brown aspects of their landscapes.

Our ambassador sites are:

- Ashridge Estate, Hertfordshire*
- Belvoir Castle, Leicestershire
- Fenstanton, Cambridgeshire
- Kirkharle, Northumberland
- Longleat, Wiltshire
- Sherborne Castle, Dorset

A small number of additional sites may be added at a later stage.

* These sites are cared for by the National Trust

 These sites are members of the Historic Houses Association (HHA)

 Wrest Park is cared for by English Heritage