

Unforgettable Gardens

500 years of Historic Gardens and Landscapes

The Gardens Trust

A glorious celebration exploring 60 of the greatest gardens, parks and landscapes in Britain, curated by the prestigious organisation The Gardens Trust.

This beautiful book, arranged chronologically, charts an insightful historical overview of British garden design ranging from the 1500's all the way into the 21st Century.

With breath-taking photography showcasing each garden's unique curation as well as perceptive text from leading garden historians and conservators, Unforgettable Gardens is a stunning voyage into historical and contemporary gardening innovation.

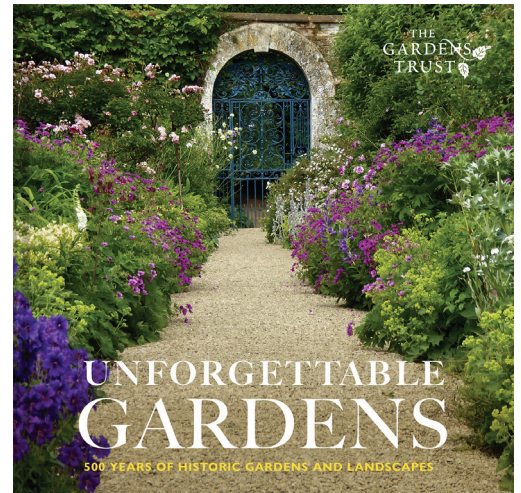

Discover the work of Margery Fish in creating the luscious cottage gardens of East Lambrook Manor, or the dedication of Capability Brown in crafting the decadent landscapes of Blenheim Palace. Exploring the beauty of contemporary gardens, find Ian Hamilton Finlay's Little Sparta, a unique celebration of Scottish history. Other historic gardens include:

- Elizabethan splendour at Kenilworth Castle.
- Birkenhead Park, the Victorian inspiration for New York's Central Park.
- The captivating Japanese gardens at Cowden.

Traverse the world of wondrous garden design with this fascinating collection that harnesses the expertise of some of Britain's finest garden experts. This is the perfect companion for any budding gardener or history enthusiast.

The Gardens Trust is the UK's only national charity dedicated to protecting and conserving our heritage of designed landscapes. The Trust campaigns on their behalf, undertakes research and conservation work, and encourages public appreciation and involvement. Through the national network of County and Country Garden Trusts, they have access to people and local expertise throughout the country. The Gardens Trust is also a membership organisation that relies on members and donors to support their work. It is based in London.
